Hippo Bites Tourist !

The Daily Mail - An angry hippopotamus attacked the canoe of a British tourist in Zimbabwe. Paul Wietzel, a teacher from Oxford, was on a safari tour on the Zambesi River. When the huge hippo headed towards his canoe, Paul tried to get his boat away from the animal. Too late!

The hippo came right up under the canoe and bit through the bottom of the boat. The hippo got hold of Paul's right foot, and he fell into the water. The hippo bit his shoulder, but then left him alone.

Paul Wietzel was taken to hospital in Harare.
